

English Camp 2019 - Polička, Czech Republic

2-week mission trip, July 2019 - exact dates TBD

---

Opening doors to build teamwork and trust between cultures.

• Why is this mission experience so special?

- build relationships across a variety of cultural (and geographical!) borders
- give the kids a chance to speak and listen to native English speakers
- encourage leadership opportunities for the youth of Polička
- help the congregation of Polička in its mission to reach out and care for the youth of the community
- experience immersion in a foreign culture – our hosts share their homes and their tables with incredible hospitality!

• What does a typical day at camp look like?

- Morning Devotion
  - English Camp all morning led by American Team with Czech volunteers and translators
  - Walk to lunch with the kids
  - Afternoon trips/walking around historic sites/activities with kids, volunteers, and host families
  - Dinner with families from the community
- (Lodging while in Polička is provided by host families from the Polička congregation)

• What am I responsible for financially?

Total trip cost ~approx. $2100 ($500 + cost of plane ticket)

This includes: plane ticket, food, lodging, and entry fees while on the trip.

Only personal items are extra (souvenirs, afternoon ice creams, pivo, etc)

Important Deadlines:

January 18, 2019 - Commitment form and down payment ($150) due

February 22, 2019 - second payment due ($500 if traveling with group)

($350 if purchasing your own flight) ***

April 5, 2019 - final payments due

this date may need to be earlier depending on tickets!

March 31, 2019 - if traveling on your own and purchasing your own ticket, please forward itinerary details to Jacque by this date. ***

*(If you are traveling separate from the team, your total amount due is $500 to cover everything except plane ticket.)

• What are my fundraising opportunities?

Any ideas?? If you are interested in fundraising, let's discuss!
